- (b) the Purchaser must store the Goods separately from other property in the possession of the Purchaser and in a way that enables the Goods to be easily identifiable as Goods sold by Cummins and referable to a particular invoice;

- (c) subject to clause 5.3, the Purchaser must not sell, lease, dispose of or otherwise deal with the Goods in any way without Cummins' prior written consent;
- (d) Cummins may enter the premises of the Purchaser or any third party where the Goods are stored during the hours of 9.00am to 5.00pm to inspect the Goods;
- (e) Cummins may at any time after payment is overdue require the Purchaser to deliver up the Goods to Cummins and, if the Purchaser fails to deliver up the Goods immediately, Cummins may enter the premises of the Purchaser or any third party where the Goods are stored and repossess them;
- (f) the Purchaser must not pledge or grant a security interest in or in any way charge by way of security for any indebtedness, any of the Goods which remain the property of Cummins. - (g) the Purchaser must not remove, deface, alter, obliterate or cover up any names, marks, designs, numbers, code or writing on the Goods.

5.3. Subject to clause 5.4 and 5.12, the Purchaser may sell the Goods that have not passed to the Purchaser under clause 5.1 by way of bona fide sale at full market value and in the ordinary course of the Purchaser's business but only as agent for Cummins and on terms which will not prejudice Cummins' ability to obtain the sale proceeds thereof and:

- (a) the proceeds of such sale will be held on trust for Cummins in a separate account, or otherwise clearly identified in the books and records of the Purchaser and shall be forwarded as soon as possible to Cummins in satisfaction of any amount owed by the Purchaser in respect of the Goods; and
- (b) any rights against the Purchaser's customers arising as a consequence of the sale of Goods will be held on trust for Cummins, payable immediately on demand.

- (a) Cummins reasonably believes that the Purchaser may not be able to make any payment under an Agreement by the relevant due date;
- (b) the Purchaser is the subject of any Insolvency Event; or
- (c) Cummins receives notice of or reasonably believes that a third person may attempt to levy execution against the Goods in respect of which Cummins is providing Repair Services, then the Purchaser's right to sell the Goods under clause 5.3 terminates immediately and Cummins may elect to do any one or more of the following:

- (d) suspend any further deliveries to the Purchaser arising from any Agreement; and
- (e) enter the property of the Purchaser to claim and retake possession of, and to sell, the Goods in satisfaction in whole or in part of all money owing by the Purchaser to Cummins.

- 5.5. In addition to any other rights or remedies which Cummins may have, if the Purchaser fails to pay any amount due to Cummins under an Agreement by the due date for payment and the Purchaser has not remedied the failure to make payment within 7 days of receiving notice of the failure to make payment, Cummins may elect to do any one or more of the following:
- charge the Purchaser interest (both before and after any judgement) on the unpaid amount at the interest rate which is fixed from time to time under section 2 of the Penalty Interest Rate Act 1983 (Vic), which interest will accrue and be chargeable from the first day on which such amount becomes overdue until Cummins receives payment of all such amounts (including all interest) by way of cleared funds; and
 - exercise any rights which Cummins may have under law, including the PPSA.
- 5.6. If the Purchaser fails to make any payment due to Cummins under an Agreement by the due date the Purchaser must pay to Cummins on demand all amounts reasonably incurred by Cummins in recovering or seeking to recover the payment the Purchaser owes to Cummins (including any fees or commission paid to a debt collector, mercantile agent or similar).
- 5.7. For the purposes of Cummins exercising its rights under clause 5.2(d) and 5.4(e), the Purchaser expressly authorises and grants Cummins and its agents an express, irrevocable licence to enter the premises of the Purchaser or relevant third party to inspect the Goods or to remove or arrange for the removal of the Goods.
- 5.8. The Purchaser must, on request, disclose to Cummins all relevant information regarding the Goods and any sale of the Goods by the Purchaser.
- 5.9. The Purchaser must inform Cummins immediately of any levy of execution or attempt to levy execution by any third party against the Goods, the title to which is reserved to Cummins in accordance with these Terms.
- 5.10. If an Insolvency Event occurs in respect of the Purchaser then, without the need for notice or demand by Cummins, the Purchaser acknowledges that any sale or purported sale of the Goods will not be in the ordinary course of the Purchaser's business and the proceeds of any Goods sold in such circumstances will, to the extent of any money owing by the Purchaser to Cummins, be held on trust for Cummins by the administrator, controller or similar officer as the case may be, or if there is no such officer, by the Purchaser.
- 5.11. If any of the Goods are installed in, or affixed to, or become an accession to any other products, any security interest in respect of that Good continues in the accession in accordance with the PPSA.
- 5.12. If the Purchaser processes, incorporates, transforms, installs or mixes the Goods (or any part of them) with any other goods or items to create new goods or products (the "Products") such that the Goods are not a readily identifiable and removable part of the Products, then until the Debt has been paid in full the Purchaser must:
- keep and maintain records in relation to the Goods which have been processed, incorporated, transformed or installed and the Products; and
 - hold a proportion of any payment (Relevant Proportion) received by the Purchaser for the Products on trust for Cummins and the Purchaser acknowledges that the Relevant Proportion must be not less than the dollar value of the portion of the Goods processed, incorporated, transformed, installed or mixed.
- 5.13. If Cummins sells the Goods in satisfaction in whole or in part of all money owing by the Purchaser to Cummins, then the Purchaser agrees to pay to Cummins an amount equal to:
- the costs reasonably incurred by Cummins in respect of the storage and handling of the Goods until their delivery under the sale;
 - the amount, if any, by which the purchase price on sale of the Goods by Cummins is less than the Purchase Price which was due to be paid by the Purchaser to Cummins; and
 - the costs reasonably incurred by Cummins in making delivery under sale of the Goods.
- ## 6. PPSA
- 6.1. Unless title in the Goods passes to the Purchaser in accordance with clause 5 prior to delivery to, or collection by, the Purchaser, the Purchaser:
- grants a first ranking security interest and purchase money security interest ("PMSI") in all Goods, and all proceeds from the sale of the Goods, for the purposes of the PPSA (and all regulations made pursuant to it);

9.3. Without limiting clause 9.2, the Purchaser must eliminate risks to health and safety at the Premises and in respect of the use of the Purchaser Supplied Equipment so far as is reasonably practicable, and, if it is not reasonably practicable to eliminate risks to health and safety, reduce those risks as is reasonably practicable.

9.4. Nothing in clauses 9.2 or 9.3 is intended to exclude Cummins' obligations under H&S Laws in relation to its Personnel.

9.5. The Purchaser will verbally notify Cummins immediately in the event of:

- (a) any incident or injury that occurs involving Personnel and provide Cummins with copies of any documentation that is created or produced as a result of or relating to such incident or injury, including but not limited to incident reports; and
- (b) any notices issued by a regulatory authority about the Purchaser Supplied Equipment, systems of work and/or plant at the Premises relevant to the attendance of the Personnel at the Premises and use of the Purchaser Supplied Equipment.

9.6. The Purchaser must at its own expense:

- (a) clean the Purchaser Supplied Equipment and keep it in good order and condition at all times;
- (b) ensure that Cummins is provided access, free of charge, to all utilities required at the Premises to provide the Services (including access to water and power);
- (c) supervise the use of any Purchaser Supplied Equipment by the Personnel;
- (d) ensure the Personnel are provided with written procedures and instructions for safe systems of work and are given any necessary training to operate the Purchaser Supplied Equipment;
- (e) if any fault or potential fault with the Purchaser Supplied Equipment is identified:
 - (i) use its best endeavours to ensure the Purchaser Supplied Equipment is not operated by the Personnel;

- (ii) ensure the Purchaser Supplied Equipment is withdrawn from use until the fault or potential fault has been assessed and controlled/repaired so that there is no longer a safety hazard with the Purchaser Supplied Equipment; and
 - (iii) ensure all necessary steps are taken to prevent injury to any persons or damage to any property as a result of the fault or potential fault identified; and
 - (iv) maintain and make available on request by Cummins records of any safety hazards and safety incidents associated with the Purchaser Supplied Equipment and any maintenance, servicing or repair of the Purchaser Supplied Equipment.
- (f) The Purchaser must pay to Cummins amounts equal to all Loss suffered or incurred by Cummins directly resulting from a breach by the Purchaser of the H&S Laws or this clause 9.

10. LIABILITY

- 10.1. Subject to clause 10.2, where the Purchaser acquires Goods and/or Services as a Consumer, Cummins acknowledges that the Purchaser may have certain rights under the Australian Consumer Law in respect of the Consumer Guarantees and nothing in these Terms should be interpreted as attempting to exclude, restrict or modify either the exercise by the Purchaser of such rights or remedies in respect of the Consumer Guarantees or any other rights or remedies conferred by the Australian Consumer Law or the application of the Consumer Guarantees or any other provision of the Australian Consumer Law.
- 10.2. If the Purchaser acquires Goods and/or Services as a Consumer and the Goods and/or Services supplied are Non PDH Goods or Services, then Cummins' liability to the Purchaser for any Claim in respect of a breach or alleged breach by Cummins of the Consumer Guarantees in respect of those Non PDH Goods or Services is limited, at Cummins' option to:
- (a) in the case of Goods:
 - (i) the replacement of the Goods or the supply of equivalent goods;
 - (ii) the repair of the Goods;
 - (iii) the payment of the cost of replacing the Goods or of acquiring equivalent goods; or
 - (iv) the payment of the cost of having the Goods repaired; and
 - (b) in the case of Services:
 - (i) the supplying of the Services again; or
 - (ii) the payment of the cost of having the services supplied again.
- 10.3. Subject to clause 10.7, where the Purchaser makes a Claim against Cummins in connection with these Terms which includes a cause of action other than for a breach of a Consumer Guarantee, then to the extent the Claim, or part of the Claim, does not relate to a Consumer Guarantee and to the extent permitted by law, Cummins total aggregate liability arising in connection with all such Claims shall not exceed an amount equal to the Purchase Price paid in respect of the Agreement under which the Goods or Services were supplied.
- 10.4. In relation to the supply of Goods which are Non PDH Goods or Services, if Cummins is liable to indemnify the Purchaser under section 274 of the Australian Consumer Law, Cummins' liability to the Purchaser is limited to an amount equal to the lower of:

- (a) the cost of replacing the Goods;
 - (b) the cost of obtaining equivalent Goods; or
 - (c) the cost of having the Goods repaired.
- 10.5. Subject to clauses 10.6 and 10.7, the Purchaser's total aggregate liability arising in connection with all Claims Cummins makes against the Purchaser in connection with or arising out of these Terms shall be limited to the Purchase Price paid in respect of the Agreement under which the Goods or Services were supplied.
- 10.6. Clause 10.5 does not apply in relation to any claim which Cummins may make against the Purchaser in respect of the Purchaser's obligation to pay the Purchase Price (including any amount under clause 5.5(a)).
- 10.7. Subject to 10.1:
- (a) neither party shall not be liable to the other party in respect of any Claim for any Consequential Loss; and.
 - (b) the amount of a party's liability in respect of any Claim made by the other party will be reduced by the extent, if any, to which the other party contributed to the Loss arising from the Claim.

11. EXPRESS WARRANTIES

Nothing in these Terms should be interpreted as derogating, excluding, restricting or modifying any express written warranty which Cummins may separately provide to the Purchaser in respect of any Goods acquired under these Terms.

12. NOTIFICATION OF CLAIMS

- 12.1. The Purchaser shall notify Cummins immediately if it becomes aware of:
- (a) any claim; or
 - (b) any death, serious injury or serious illness,
- in respect of, or caused by, the Goods or Purchaser Goods or other goods of which the Goods or Purchaser Goods are a component or mixed with and the Purchaser will take all reasonable steps to mitigate any Loss arising as a consequence of the claim, death, serious injury or serious illness.
- 12.2. If Goods or Purchaser Goods are sold or supplied by the Purchaser to a third party for commercial use by that third party, the Purchaser must impose on the third party an obligation to notify the Purchaser immediately if the third party becomes aware of:
- (a) any claim; or
 - (b) any death, serious injury or serious illness,
- in respect of the Goods or Purchaser Goods or other goods of which the Goods or Purchaser Goods are a component or mixed with and to take all reasonable steps to mitigate Loss arising as a consequence of the claim, death, serious injury or serious illness.

13. REQUIREMENTS FOR SUPPLY TO CONSUMERS

The Purchaser must, and must impose on any third party to whom it sells or supplies the Goods or Purchaser Goods an obligation to:

- (a) not, without Cummins' express written consent, make any representation to any Consumer regarding the purpose, performance or durability of the Goods or

Purchaser Goods, which is in breach of the Australian Consumer Law;

- (b) take all steps and do all things necessary to promptly pass on to Cummins any claim made by a Consumer arising out of or in connection with Cummins' responsibilities under the Australian Consumer Law and must, at the Purchaser's expense, assist Cummins to comply with its obligations under the Australian Consumer Law;
- (c) not, other than in respect of any warranties or guarantees which cannot be excluded by law, make on behalf of Cummins any undertaking, assertion, statement, warranty, admission or other representation in respect of the Goods which is inconsistent with the Agreement under which the Goods are supplied; and
- (d) not agree to settle any claim made by a Consumer in relation to a matter that Cummins may be liable under the Australian Consumer Law without the prior written consent of Cummins (not to be unreasonably withheld).

14. DEFECTIVE GOODS AND SERVICES

- 14.1. The terms of this clause 14 are subject to clause 10 and, if a Good is not of acceptable quality, faulty, defective or damaged, the Purchaser may have rights under the Australian Consumer Law which are not affected by this clause 14.
- 14.2. Subject always to any applicable provisions of, or rights under, the Australian Consumer Law or requirements under any express written warranty separately provided by Cummins in respect of the Goods:
 - (a) any claim for defective Goods or Services must be made in writing to Cummins within seventy-two (72) hours after delivery of the Goods or completion of the Services;
 - (b) the Goods in respect of which any such claim is made must be preserved intact as delivered for a period of fourteen (14) days after such notice is given within which time Cummins shall have the right to attend the premises of the Purchaser and inspect the same;
 - (c) the provision to the Purchaser of any remedy in respect of any Goods or Services which the Purchaser claims are defective and determined by Cummins to be defective will be at Cummins' sole discretion.

If no notice is given in accordance with this clause, the Goods shall be deemed to have been supplied in accordance with the Agreement and the Purchaser shall be bound to accept and pay for the Goods accordingly.

15. PRICE

- 15.1. Cummins may vary the Purchase Price payable for the Goods and Services by notice to the Purchaser after the date on which an Agreement becomes binding under clause 2.3 if the date for delivery of the Goods or Services requested by the Purchaser falls after the end of a validity period of the Purchase Price set out in the relevant Quote, provided that the Purchaser may cancel any Order for those Goods and Services and terminate any relevant Agreement within 7 days of receipt of notification of such variation to the Purchase Price.
- 15.2. Unless expressly agreed by the parties to be included in the Purchase Price, the Purchaser shall pay to Cummins in addition to the Purchase Price:
 - (a) all taxes, duties and charges whatsoever imposed by any government or other authority and payable in respect or by reason of the sale or delivery of the Goods/and or Services or any part thereof whether or not the same were payable at the date of the Quote or Order and including (without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing) charges for import, export or currency licenses, sales, consumption, turnover or purchase taxes and duties of customs and excise;

- (b) the amount of:
 - (i) any excess over the amount reasonably allowed by Cummins in any Quote for the costs of changes in rates of exchange, freight and insurance or port dues or handling charges at any port to which the Goods are to be shipped which is not regularly served without trans-shipment by a line of steamers; and
 - (ii) any excess over the amount allowed by Cummins in any Quote for supplying or delivering the Goods and/or Services where such excess results from any error or omission on the part of the Purchaser, its servants or agents affecting the price or its calculation.
- (c) any increase in the cost to Cummins arising from delivery of the Goods and/or Services to a place at a time or in a manner other than that specified in the Quote or Order;
- (d) merchant's fees, including merchant's fees charged to Cummins in respect of payments received by credit card or other form of credit facility.

- 15.3. The Purchaser may cancel any Order and terminate any relevant Agreement if, as a result of any of the circumstances in clause 15.1(b), the Purchaser is required to pay an amount which is greater than 5% of the Purchase Price (plus any GST which may be payable under clause 16).
- 15.4. Subject to clause 15.5, the Purchase Price shall be paid by the Purchaser to Cummins in full within thirty (30) days of the end of the month in which the relevant Goods or Services are supplied and the Purchaser shall not be entitled to withhold payment or make any deduction from the Purchase Price in respect of any set-off or counter-claim.
- 15.5. If the Purchaser has previously failed to make any payment to Cummins by the due date for that payment (whether under these Terms or otherwise) Cummins may require payment of the Purchase Price in full prior to Cummins delivering the relevant Goods or providing the Services.

16. GST

Unless otherwise expressly stated in writing in an Agreement, all amounts payable by the Purchaser in connection with an Agreement do not include an amount for GST. If GST is payable on any supply made by Cummins under these Terms, the Purchaser must pay to Cummins, in addition to and at the same time as the payment for the supply, an amount equal to the amount of GST on the supply. Where the Purchaser is required by these Terms to reimburse or indemnify Cummins for any Loss or other amount incurred, the amount to be reimbursed or paid will be reduced by the amount of any input tax credit that Cummins will be entitled to claim for the Loss or amount incurred and increased by the amount of any GST payable by Cummins in respect of the reimbursement or payment. This clause does not merge on completion or termination of the relevant Agreement or contract. In this clause, words and expressions which are defined in the A New Tax System (Goods and Services Tax) Act 1999 (Cth) have the same meaning given to them by that Act.

17. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

- 17.1. If the Purchaser provides to Cummins specifications, designs, plans, descriptions, prototypes, samples, tooling, components, material, documentation, data or information for or in relation to the Goods and/or Services or their manufacture or delivery ("Purchaser Supplier Materials"), the Purchaser represents and warrants to Cummins that:
- (a) the Purchaser is the legal and beneficial owner of, or is entitled to use, any Intellectual Property Rights in such Purchaser Supplied Materials;
 - (b) grants to Cummins a non-exclusive, royalty free licence during the term of each Agreement to use, reproduce, modify, adapt and further develop all Intellectual Property Rights in those portions of the Purchaser Supplied Materials which are required to enable Cummins to supply the Goods or perform the Services; and
 - (c) shall indemnify Cummins and hold Cummins harmless from and against all any Claims and Losses arising from or incurred by reason of any infringement or alleged infringement of the Intellectual Property Rights owned by a third party in respect to or contained within any Purchaser Supplied Materials or any confidential information or other protected or proprietary rights arising from the supply or use of such Purchaser Supplied Materials in accordance with the licence given under clause 17.1(b).
- 17.2. The Intellectual Property Rights in respect to or contained within the Goods and/or Services or in any Specification in relation to the Goods and/or Services or their manufacture which have been developed by or on behalf of Cummins shall remain the property of Cummins and no transfer to the Purchaser of any such rights is included in the price paid or agreed to be paid whether or not such price includes an amount for designing or producing the Goods and/or Services.
- 17.3. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the provision of Repair Services under an Agreement may result in the loss of any user-generated data or other data stored in or by the relevant Purchaser Goods and it is the Purchaser's responsibility to ensure it has made a copy of any data saved on or stored on Purchaser Goods submitted to Cummins for the provision of Repair Services and, subject to the Australian Consumer Law, Cummins is not responsible for any Loss arising from or relating to such loss of data.

18. CONFIDENTIALITY

- 18.1. The Receiving Party:
- (a) may use Confidential Information solely for the purposes of the relevant Agreement;
 - (b) must keep confidential all Confidential Information; and
 - (c) may disclose Confidential Information only to (i) employees and contractors who (A) are aware and agree that the Confidential Information must be kept confidential and (B) either have a need to know the Confidential Information (and only to the extent that each has a need to know), or have been specifically approved by the Disclosing Party; (ii) as required by law or securities exchange regulation; or (iii) with the prior written consent of the Disclosing Party.
- 18.2. The Receiving Party must notify the Receiving Party immediately once it becomes aware of any breach of confidentiality in respect of the Confidential Information and must take all reasonable steps necessary to prevent further unauthorised use or disclosure of the Confidential Information.

19. LICENCES

If it is necessary for the lawful fulfilment of an Agreement:

- (a) for the Purchaser to hold or obtain any import, export, currency or other licence, consent or authority ("licence"), the Purchaser shall be obliged to obtain the licence at its cost; or
- (b) for Cummins to hold or obtain any licence, Cummins shall apply for such licence but if it is refused, the Agreement shall immediately terminate and neither Cummins nor the Purchaser shall be under any liability to each other in respect of such termination.

20. TERMINATION

- 20.1. Without limiting a party's other rights under these Terms, a party ("Non-Defaulting Party") may terminate an Agreement with immediate effect by written notice to the other party ("Defaulting Party") if:
- (a) the Defaulting Party is the subject of an Insolvency Event;
 - (b) the Defaulting Party has breached any term of the relevant Agreement (including these Terms) which is capable of remedy and has not remedied the breach within 10 Business Days or receiving notice requiring the breach to be remedied;
 - (c) the Defaulting Party has breached any material term of the relevant Agreement (including these Terms) which is not capable of remedy; or
 - (d) in accordance with clause 23.2.
- 20.2. On termination of an Agreement:
- (a) the Purchaser must not sell or part with possession (other than as required under clause 20.2(b)) any Goods the subject of the Agreement (other than any Goods which have been paid for);
 - (b) the Purchaser must, at its cost immediately return to Cummins all Goods the subject of the Agreement (other than any Goods which have been paid for) and any displays and other promotional and advertising materials in relation to the Goods;
 - (c) Cummins may enter the premises of the Purchaser or any third party to repossess any Goods not returned as required under clause 20.2(b) and the Purchaser expressly authorises and grants Cummins and its agents an express, irrevocable licence to enter the premises of the Purchaser or relevant third party to remove or arrange for the removal of such Goods; and
 - (d) all monies owed by the Purchaser to Cummins shall become immediately due and payable.

- 20.3. Each party retains any rights, entitlements or remedies it has accrued before termination, including the right to pursue all remedies available to either party at law or in equity.

21. INDEMNITY

Each party ("First Party") indemnifies the other party ("Second Party") and holds the Second Party harmless from and against all Losses (including all legal costs, and any other associated fees and costs) for which the Second Party incurs as a direct result of:

- (a) any breach of an Agreement by the First Party; and
- (b) any negligent or wilful act or omission by the First Party, the First Party's employees, agents, servants, contractors or others for whom the First Party is legally responsible.

22. MODERN SLAVERY

- 22.1. Cummins will take reasonable steps to ensure that it and its subcontractors identify, assess and address risks of Modern Slavery practices in the operations and supply chains used in the provision of the Goods and/or Services.
- 22.2. If at any time Cummins becomes aware of Modern Slavery practices in the operations and supply chains used in the performance of an Agreement, Cummins will, as soon as reasonably practicable, take all reasonable action to address or remove these practices, including where relevant by addressing any practices of other entities in its supply chains.

23. FORCE MAJEURE

- 23.1. Neither party will be liable for any failure to perform or delay in performing its obligations under an Agreement (other than in respect of the Purchaser's obligation to pay the Purchase Price and any amount under clauses 5.5) if that failure or delay is due to a Force Majeure Event.
- 23.2. If a Force Majeure Event under clause 23.1 exceeds 20 Business Days, the party not affected by the Force Majeure Event may immediately terminate the Agreement by written notice to the other party.

24. EXPORT CONTROL

- 24.1. The Purchaser acknowledges that any goods the Purchaser receives from Cummins may be subject to export control, sanctions, laws, and regulations (including without limit, those of the U.S, E.U, United Kingdom and Singapore) and Cummins' policies that control or restrict the export of goods ("Export Restrictions"). The Purchaser shall comply with all Export Restrictions as they apply to the Purchaser and shall not cause Cummins or its affiliates to be in breach of any Export Restrictions. In particular, the Purchaser agrees not, unless written consent is obtained from Cummins in advance, to:
- (a) use the goods or supply the goods for use, in the production, operation, maintenance or related use of any chemical, biological or nuclear weapon or explosive device, or their delivery systems, or for any military purpose;
 - (b) use, sell, export, make available or otherwise deal with the goods in any country (including but not limited to Cuba, Iran, North Korea, Syria or the following regions of the Ukraine: Crimea, Donetsk People's Republic (DNR) or Luhansk People's Republic (LNR)) subject to a specific Export Restriction; or
 - (c) sell, export or make available the goods to any part restricted by the Export Restrictions.

25. ANTI-BRIBERY

- 25.1. Purchaser understands that Cummins and Cummins products are subject to various laws, regulations, and other restrictive measures governing anti-bribery and anti-corruption, including the U.S. Foreign Corrupt Practices Act of 1977 (the "FCPA"), as amended (15 U.S.C. §§78dd-1 et seq.) and the UK Bribery Act 2010 ("Anti-Bribery Laws").
- 25.2. In the context of its relationship with Cummins, Purchaser understands and agrees to comply with all applicable Anti-Bribery Laws.
- 25.3. Purchaser has not and will not make, offer, promise, authorize, or deliver any payment, gift of any kind, or anything of value, directly or indirectly, to any government official or employee or any other person or entity, including those in the private or commercial sector, for the purpose of influencing any act or decision of such person or securing an improper advantage to assist Cummins or Purchaser or its affiliates in obtaining or retaining business.

- 25.4. Purchaser has not and will not, directly or indirectly, commit any act of bribery or any other action in violation of Anti-Bribery Laws.
- 25.5. Purchaser confirms that it has implemented adequate policies and procedures to ensure compliance with applicable Anti-Bribery Laws and Cummins' requirements.

26. GENERAL

- 26.1. In these Terms:
- (a) the singular includes the plural and vice versa;
 - (b) the word person includes a firm, a body corporate, an unincorporated association, body or organisation established pursuant to international treaty, intergovernmental body, or government authority and other official authority;
 - (c) a reference to a document or legislation includes a reference to that document or legislation as varied, amended, novated or replaced from time to time;
 - (d) a reference to a person includes a reference to the person's executors, administrators, successors, substitutes (including, but not limited to, persons taking by novation) and permitted assigns;
 - (e) headings are inserted for convenience and do not affect the interpretation of these Terms;
 - (f) no provision will be construed to the disadvantage of a party merely because that party was responsible for the preparation of the Terms or the inclusion of the provision in the Terms; and
 - (g) unless otherwise provided, all monetary amounts are in Australian dollars and a reference to payment means payment in Australian dollars.
- 26.2. These terms and conditions and any contract formed under them shall be construed in accordance with and be governed by the laws of the State of Victoria and the parties agree to submit all disputes arising between them to the courts of such state and any court competent to hear appeals therefrom.
- 26.3. Nothing in these terms and conditions excludes, restricts or modifies any condition, warranty, statutory guarantee, right or remedy implied or imposed by statute, regulation or common law which cannot be lawfully excluded, restricted or modified, which may include the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth) (including the Australian Consumer Law) and corresponding provisions and relevant laws of State or Territory legislation.
- 26.4. No failure to exercise and no delay in exercising any right, power or remedy under these terms will operate as a waiver. Nor will any single or partial exercise of any other right, power or remedy preclude any other or further exercise of that or any other right, power or remedy.
- 26.5. If any provision of these Terms is void, unenforceable or illegal and would not be so if words were omitted, then those words are to be severed and if this cannot be done, the entire provision is to be severed from these Terms without affecting the validity or enforceability of the remaining provisions.
- 26.6. The Purchaser must maintain and keep current and complete records of the Goods which Cummins has supplied to the Purchaser and or Purchaser Goods for which Cummins has provided Repair Services, including any Goods or Purchaser Goods which are sold by the Purchaser to a third party and must, immediately upon written request from Cummins, provide Cummins with access to, or copies of, those records.

- 26.7. The Purchaser must not assign or otherwise deal with any of its rights or obligations under these Terms without Cummins' prior written consent. Cummins may, to the extent permitted by law, assign or otherwise deal with any of its rights or obligations under these Terms (including any right to be paid or chose in action) at any time in circumstances where the assignment or dealing will not materially adversely impact the Purchaser or materially adversely affect the rights of the Purchaser. Any Change of Control of a party will, for the purposes of this clause, be deemed to be an assignment by that party.
- 26.8. Cummins may, to the extent permitted by law, vary these Terms from time to time with the variation becoming effective as soon as Cummins provides the Purchaser notice of the variation ("Variation Date"). Any variation to these Terms will only apply to, and in respect of, any Offer made after the Variation Date and the parties acknowledge that nothing in these Terms requires the Purchaser to make any further Offers after the Variation Date. The Purchaser may, by written notice to Cummins, terminate these Terms at anytime within 30 days of receiving notice of a variation of the Terms but any such termination by the Purchaser will not have the effect of terminating any Agreement existing prior to the notice of termination.
- 26.9. The termination or expiry of these Terms or any Agreement does not operate to terminate any rights or obligations under an Agreement that by their nature are intended to survive termination or expiration, and those rights or obligations remain in full force and binding on the party concerned including without limitation the rights and obligations under clauses 1, 4.7, 5, 6, 7, 8, 10, 12, 16, 17, 18, 20, 21 and 26.
- 26.10. The relationship between the parties is and will remain that of independent contractors, and nothing in these Terms or an Agreement constitutes the parties as partners or joint venturers or constitutes any party as the agent of another party or gives rise to any other form of fiduciary relationship between the parties.
- 26.11. Notices by a party must be delivered by hand, prepaid post or email and sent to the address of the receiving party specified in the relevant Agreement or otherwise provided in writing by the party to the receiving party. Notices shall be deemed to have been received by hand upon delivery, by post within two (2) Business Days of sending and by email one hour after the email (unless the sender knows that email has failed to send).
- 26.12. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between parties as to its subject matter. It supersedes and replaces any prior or collateral negotiation, understanding, representation, communication or agreement by or between the parties in relation to its subject matter, whether written, oral, express or implied.
